

European Parliament Ambassador Schools

Address our Future

Agenda

European Parliament Ambassador Schools (EPAS)

- What does EPAS mean?
- Why should we support EPAS?
- Where to get further information?
- Actions requested from the schools
- Support from the European Parliament to the schools
- Our approach

What does EPAS mean?

- The European Parliament Ambassador School Programme (EPAS) aims at increasing students' awareness of European parliamentary democracy, the role of the European Parliament and European values.
- It also encourages them to actively participate in EU democratic processes.
- It targets students with diverse educational, social and geographical backgrounds.

Why should we support EPAS?

- The students are our future
- Students should know how the EP works
- With EPAS young Europeans will participate actively in public debates
- EPAS provide useful information to young voters before the elections
- UEF sections, supporting EPAS increase their own visibility
- Schools at our countries will join a network across the whole EU

Where to get further information?

- The liaison office in your country:

<https://liaison-offices.europarl.europa.eu/en/offices>

- Please check the application details
- Schools to submit its applications through their country's

European Parliament Liaison Offices

- European Parliament Youth Hub:

<https://youth.europarl.europa.eu/more-information/ambassador-school.html>

Actions requested from the School

- Appoint Ambassadors:
 - Senior Ambassadors (teachers) will oversee the educational aspects;
 - Junior Ambassadors (students) will organize and carry out projects.
- Create an Info Point:

Junior Ambassadors will manage and update this point to share information about the EU.
- Organise an Event for Europe Day (9 May): Celebrate and promote European values and awareness.

Support from the European Parliament to the School

Learning Resources

Programmes

Ambassador School Active Lessons

- General information and facts about the EU
- Training on democratic skills and participation
- Classroom role-play games and quizzes

Our Approach

- Any member, member of the board to contact his/her own school
- Promote EPAS at the identified schools
- Support the school, especially on celebrations

Further support like introduction letters and participation guidelines by michael.m.montag@europauniontarp.de